

Quick Reference – What is a widget?

A widget is an embeddable form that you can place on any web page that you own. It allows others to submit donations, provide your organization with contact information for a particular purpose, like an event registration, or simply give their email to receive correspondence.