

Quick Reference – How do I see how people are interacting with a specific widget?

On the widgets page, click on the name of the widget that you want more information for. This will display the widget details page. Here you can see who has viewed, interacted with, and submitted your widget form. You can also get a full listing of submissions, what we call conversions, at the bottom of the page.